

1. Feeling different, been attracted to ladies
 - a. Hi [MC], do you have some time I talk? I want to get something off of my chest.
 - b. ...
 - c. (Library, no one is around)
 - d. Harper: I don't really know how to talk about this. This is the first time I've brought this up to someone.
 - e. Do you remember the castle and the clouds that I was stuck in?
 - f. Choice: Of course. Yep, I was there, you were there.
 - g. Do you remember how there were rainbows that appeared after I was rescued?
 - h. I think that is symbolism for me.
 - i. Choice: What do you mean? I may have a hunch.
 - j. I think... This sounds weird saying it outloud but, I think - I like girls.
 - k. I've never said that out loud before. I understand if you don't want to be friends.
 - l. Choice: That is fine with me. You can't fight who you are.
 - m. You're not upset? You don't look at me differently? We're still friends?
 - n. ...
 - o. I feel like there should've been more fanfare based on how much I spun it up in my head.
 - p. Choice: Thanks for confiding in me I could flip a table if you want fanfare.
 - i. A) It feels weird to have that be in the open.
 - ii. B) No, let's not do that.
 - q. sigh I feel good now. I've been feeling that for several years now, but it always felt wrong.
 - r. Anyway, thanks for coming with me today. I'm glad I could get it off my chest.
 - s. (Level up)
 - t. Maybe we could talk more later, but I need to process this now.
 - u. Someone is coming, we should leave.
 - v. (scene ends)
2. Conservative house, dated boys last year, is this who i am?, don't want to come out for fear of reputation hit, regrets from family of who to ask out, didn't like their life
 - a. Do you have some time to talk today?
 - b. ...
 - c. (Great hall - not peak lunch)
 - d. I was doing some thinking - I'm glad I told you my secret. That has been buried in me for a long time.
 - e. I got a letter from my parents last week - my grandma isn't doing well. I don't think I will be able to see her before her time is up.
 - f. Choice: I'm sorry to hear that. Can you go see her?
 - i. It is okay, really it is.
 - ii. I don't think I want to.
 - g. She was never a nice lady. She was always mean when we would go to visit.
 - h. My mom was cleaning out her place and tidying up when she found an old memory box.

- i. In that box was a letter she wrote to herself. My grandma won't say what it was for, but my mom read it and it was - hard.
 - j. She talked about her younger self, growing up in a small town in Missouri. She had a crush on a roller rink worker - Frank.
 - k. Back in that time, she waited for Frank to ask her out, but Frank never did. Instead, my grandpa, George asked her out. She said yes thinking it would make Frank jealous.
 - l. My grandma and grandpa started dating, my grandpa proposed and she felt obligated to say yes.
 - m. Soon, kids were coming along, she was a mother, and a grandmother.
 - n. But she never wanted to be with my grandpa. She wanted to be with Frank.
 - o. In her letter, she talked about that being the biggest regret of her life - dating my grandpa. She had been internalizing that regret and it turned to hatred and resentment.
 - p. That was not the life she wanted and she wished she could do it over again, but it was too late.
 - q. Choice: That must've been difficult. I can understand her pain.
 - i. I agree, it was hard to read and hard for her to live through.
 - ii. 60 years of bottled up resentment and hating living everyday will scar you.
 - r. That is why I wanted to tell you my secret. I don't want to be on my deathbed wishing I would've told someone sooner.
 - s. Thanks for listening to me ramble. I wanted to talk to someone about it.
 - t. (Level up)
 - u. We should probably get going to class. The lunch hour is almost up.
 - v. (end scene)
3. Getting courage to accept yourself, Going to ask out Trinity
- a. Hi [MC], got time to talk?
 - b. ...
 - c. 2nd floor corridor (with arm chairs)
 - d. My grandma's letter is still resonating with me. My mom sent another letter saying she passed away.
 - e. Choice: I'm so sorry. That is terrible.
 - f. I don't think it is a bad thing. She didn't want her life and now it is over. She's been upset for most of her life about her choices. That can be a lesson for us.
 - g. Her legacy to me is to not live with regret.
 - h. So - I'm going to do it.
 - i. Choice: Do what? What're you talking about?
 - j. I'm going to put myself out there and ask out a classmate of mine - Trinity.
 - k. I've had a crush on her since 3rd year. She's single, funny, popular, and very smart.
 - l. Choice: Do you know if she's into you? Do you know if she likes girls?
 - m. I have no idea, but I want to try. What is the worst she can say? "No"?
 - n. Well probably the worst she can say is - "Ah, get away from me, you're scaring me!", but the odds of that are low.

- o. I was wondering if you would be willing to be there with me - like a wingman.
p. Choice: Sure! I can help! Beam me up, Scotty!
q. Thanks, it is the first time I will ever ask a girl out. Even the thought of it is making my palms sweaty, but I want to try.
r. I need to do it.
s. You: You feel determination from Harper. You feel like she trusts you more.
t. (Level up)
u. I'll let you know when I'm ready.
v. What should I say? What should I wear?
w. You: She gets up and leaves in a cloud of thought.
x. (end scene)
4. Ask out Trinity, gets rejected (not gay), not discouraged
- a. Hi [MC], I could use some backup. Care to join me?
b. ...
c. Outside classroom
d. Trinity: I'm going to ask Trinity out. I have had a crush on her for two years. I don't know what she will say, but I won't know unless I ask.
e. CHOICE: Sounds great! I'm here for you!
f. Thanks! I don't think I could do it without your help.
g. Here she comes.
h. Group of 3 girls comes out of classroom up to Harper, Trinity leads.
i. Trinity: Hi Harper! How is it going? Hi Harper's friend.
j. Harper: Hi Trinity! Er -
k. Harper: ...
l. Choice: You can do it. You've got this
m. Harper: Trinity, would you like to go on a date with me sometime?
n. Trinity: I'm - I didn't catch that.
o. Harper: Trinity, I have had a crush on you for a while. Would you like to go on a date with me sometime?
p. Trinity: Oh! Well - (rotate to look at her friends)
q. Trinity: I'm flattered, really I am, but I - I don't swing that way.
r. Trinity: I think you are a great person, but I don't think we can go out.
s. Harper: I - I understand. I had to try, right?
t. Trinity: Of course (nod)
u. Trinity: Come on, gals, we need to go to Transfiguration.
v. (they leave the scene)
w. Choice: I'm sorry... You tried!
x. Harper: It is alright. It hurts, but that is part of dating - you are going to get rejected.
y. Harper: Thanks for being here with me. I couldn't have done it without you.
z. (Level up friend)
aa. Harper: I'll shake this off, what better way to get rejected than by someone you've liked for a long time.
bb. Harper: Haha. he ... he...

cc. (end scene)

5. I may not have the answers, but I'm learning. You cant run away from yourself, you cant run away from who you are, you can pretend, but you will regret it. Someone asks her out a. Harper: Could we talk? I want to go over something with you.

b. ...

c. (Great hall between lunch periods, no one in there)

d. I'm glad i asked our Trinity. I didn't hide who I was and I'm learning more about myself.

e. At the end of the day, that is all we can ask ourselves.

f. Choice: You're taking this well I'm proud of you.

g. Thanks. I was doing some thinking - I don't want to be old and crusty laying on a bed in some magic ward for the insane and think - "I wish I was more true to myself"

h. Regrets are weights we carry our entire life. I don't want that around my neck.

i. If down the road something clicks and I'm not into women anymore, then I'll learn more about myself, but for now, this is who I am and I need to be true to that.

j. Choice: Regrets won't be an issue for you. That's the Harper I know.

k. (boy approaches table - Cecil [Hummingbird])

l. Boy: Hi Harper, I love your hair.

m. Harper: Thanks Cecil! I thought the color came out well.

n. Cecil: Um... I think you're very intelligent and you have a lot of confidence.

o. Cecil: Would you like to go on a date with me sometime?

p. Harper: Thank you, Cecil, I appreciate it, but - I - I'm afraid I only like girls.

q. Harper: I think you're a great person, but I don't think it would work for us.

r. Cecil: Oh, I didn't know. I'm sorry. Okay, have a good day then.

s. Harper: Thanks Cecil.

t. (Cecil walks away)

u. Harper: If we can't be true to ourselves, who can we be true to?

v. Harper: Thanks for everything [MC], I could not ask for a better friend.

w. (Level up friend)

x. You feel an unbreakable friendship with Harper.

y. Harper: I should start studying for exams. We can't let relationships get in the way of our studying.
