

1. Feeling lost. No family. Scared of what is ahead. Aimless. Big unknown world.
 - a. Hi [MC], do you have some time to talk?
 - b. ...
 - c. outside under an awning.
 - d. Gracie May: Thanks for saving me on that boat... That was unsettling.
 - e. CHOICE: You're welcome! Why a boat?
 - f. Can I ask you something? Honestly?
 - g. How do you know what to do?
 - h. Like - it is my first year here coming from a non-magical family. This whole world is new to me. It is so big and I feel so small in it.
 - i. I'm scared of what to do. It is so overwhelming.
 - j. My parents want to hear about everything that is going on. They tell my younger brothers everything I do. I don't want to let them down, but I also don't want to play it so safe that I don't do anything except study.
 - k. I don't know what to do with myself. I feel aimless in this wizarding ocean.
 - l. CHOICE: It is okay to not know everything. Sometimes the unknown is fun.
 - m. You're right, but that is easier said than done.
 - n. Maybe I just need to start putting myself out there and see what this world has to offer.
 - o. Isn't it funny how little sentences can change your mindset?
 - p. He he... he.
 - q. You feel a different energy from Gracie May.
 - r. (Level up)
 - s. I think I'm going to walk around for a little and do some thinking.
 - t. Thanks for listening to me.
 - u. You decide to give her some space and leave her be.
 - v. (end scene)
2. First in family to go through this. They want to know everything so my siblings know what to do. That is a lot of pressure.
 - a. I want to talk to you about something. Do you have time?
 - b. ...
 - c. Great Hall
 - d. I did some thinking and - I'm starting to realize that I can do whatever I want to do. I have control over my time, classes, friends, and clubs.
 - e. Not everything has to be perfect and what doesn't turn out well - I can learn something from. And if it really doesn't turn out well - then I get a good story about it later.
 - f. CHOICE: That was a fast revelation. What triggered that?
 - g. Well, just because I realized it, doesn't mean I need to act on it.
 - h. My parents put me into this school. I want to do them proud, but that doesn't mean just getting good grades.
 - i. I know I can study, but they want me to be magical, not just study magic.
 - j. I think that means I should start trying some clubs and see what works. It is such a huge world out here, there has to be something I like.

- k. Would you want to try out some clubs with me?
 - l. CHOICE: That sounds fun! I could add a club.
 - m. Really!? Yay!
 - n. Okay! I'll start brain storming a couple and see what we can do together.
 - o. This is going to be fun!
 - p. You feel a new energy from Gracie May.
 - q. (Level up)
 - r. We could try the dueling club! Or Creature Comforts! Or Grow Your Own Limbs!
 - s. You let her list off clubs. Half of them, you are pretty sure don't exist until it was late and you returned to your dorm.
 - t. (end scene)
3. Trying clubs
- a. Do you want to try club hopping with me?
 - b. ...
 - c. Wizard Chess Club (classroom, board, people with attention animation)
 - d. So, this is wizard chess club.
 - e. Do you know how to play chess?
 - f. CHOICE: Of course! Nope, not a clue!
 - i. Wow! Okay, well let's find an open board.
 - ii. Good! That makes two of us!
 - g. (jump to a board with them sitting at it)
 - h. You don't recognize any of these pieces.
 - i. Why are they moving like that? I didn't tell them that.
 - j. You begin to think your non-magical understanding of chess doesn't translate here.
 - k. Gracie May: So... Uh... is this some new strategy? I didn't know dragons could eat your own peasants. Why is my president running off of the board?
 - l. You look around at other boards - those pieces seem to be staying on their squares.
 - m. Gracie May: Do you want to try something else?
 - n. CHOICE: Yes please. Sure, we can something new!
 - o. (cut to magical painting)
 - p. Gracie May: Magical painting sounds fun! The pictures move here so we can learn how to do that!
 - q. (people at easels painting (combat attack anim))
 - r. (jump to empty canvases)
 - s. Gracie May: I guess we just start painting!
 - t. You spend time with Gracie May. She seems more relaxed today, but her painting skills... need work.
 - u. (Level up)
 - v. (black screen flashes to show time passes)
 - w. (Finished painting - You drew a house, she drew a cat? You can't tell, neither are moving)
 - x. CHOICE: Nice cat! Nice dog!

- y. Gracie May: Thanks! It was supposed to be a unicorn.
- z. Gracie May: That was fun, but maybe we'll try something else.
- aa. Gracie May: Thanks for spending your day with me! I'm going to hang this in my dorm.
- bb. The two of you leave back to your dorms.
- cc. (end scene)
- 4. Finding a club she likes
 - a. Want to try shopping for clubs again?
 - b. ...
 - c. Gracie May leads you to the dungeons.
 - d. Gracie May: I thought about dueling club, but that is too combative for me. Then I thought about potions club, but potions class isn't - ... fun.
 - e. So, let's try Domestics Club!
 - f. Choice: Domestics Club? That sounds...fun.
 - g. Yeah, that wasn't my first thought either, but think about it - who wouldn't want to clean their room with a wave of their wand or make a cake in 10 seconds rather than 3 hours? There are a lot of uses to it!
 - h. CHOICE: We can try it! If you're happy, I'm happy!
 - i. Great! Today they are making turkey dinners! That'll come in handy for Thanksgiving!
 - j. (jump to class, [all girls] all standing in front of empty plates) - Unknown professor standing in front.
 - k. Professor: Hello everyone! Are we ready for a scrumptious dinner today!
 - l. Professor: Hold your wand like this and say - "Lunae apparet Turcia"
 - m. (a marvelous turkey dinner appears in front of her with potatoes and sauce)
 - n. Professor: You need to focus on exactly how moist the turkey is, how sweet the cranberry sauce is, and mushy the potatoes are. The clearer the picture, the better your turkey will taste.
 - o. Professor: Now give it a try!
 - p. You try, but your plate remains empty. Others create a TV dinner.
 - q. Gracie May: I did it! I did it!
 - r. You are as surprised as she is. A turkey with gravy and potatoes appeared on her plate.
 - s. Professor: My my, that is very impressive! Especially for a first year! You have a talent for this!
 - t. Gracie May: Thank you! I loved cooking at home.
 - u. Professor: You'll fit in well here!
 - v. Student 1: You have to show me how to do that!
 - w. Student 2: That's incredible!
 - x. Student 3: Can I have a piece?
 - y. (screen to black)
 - z. The rest of the club time was spent trying to conjure turkey or enjoying Gracie May's first spell. She managed to replicate it 3 more times before the club was finished.

- aa. Your plate remained empty.
 - bb. (black screen disappeared)
 - cc. Gracie May: That was so much fun!
 - dd. CHOICE: You did well! I'm glad you had fun!
 - ee. Gracie May: Sorry it didn't work out for you. You can have some of my leftovers if you'd like!
 - ff. There is a radiant energy of happiness coming from Gracie May.
 - gg. (Level up)
 - hh. Thank you for going with me. I can't wait to do it again.
 - ii. I'm going to run these up to the dorm. Want to walk with me?
 - jj. The two of you returned to the dorm and shared her cooking with whoever dropped by.
 - kk. (end scene)
5. I still don't know what I'm doing, but that is okay. That gives me room to try new things. It is okay to fail and okay to learn. I'm learning to just relax and enjoy my time here, that is the best thing I can do for my brothers. I don't need to pass everything on to them, that takes some of the magic out.
- a. Gracie May: :Hi [MC], do you have some time to talk today?
 - b. ...
 - c. Great Hall - cookies on table
 - d. I made you some cookies in Domestics Club! It didn't seem like you had as much fun as I did so I went on without you. I hope that was okay.
 - e. CHOICE: I'm glad you did! You made the right decision.
 - f. Thank you for going club hopping with me. I would not have had the courage to go if it wasn't for you.
 - g. I wrote a letter to my parents telling them we were experimenting with clubs. They seemed very happy for me.
 - h. I'm glad I was able to relax and just learn what I like and don't like.
 - i. Sure, Domestics Club may not be a good fit for my brothers, but it makes me happy and it gives them room to learn what they like for themselves.
 - j. I don't need to try everything or learn to do everything.
 - k. I don't feel as lost anymore. I don't know exactly who I want to be, but I am trying.
 - l. Isn't that all we can ask for?
 - m. CHOICE: You're absolutely right. Do you have anymore cookies?
 - n. She beams at you.
 - o. You feel like you have a deep friendship with Gracie May.
 - p. I wonder if my parents will meet me when I return for the summer?
 - q. The two of you spend the evening talking and discussing dishes before returning to your dorm.
 - r. (end scene)
